Simply You

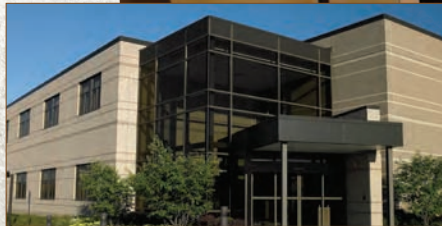

MAKING YOU FEEL BRAND NEW

Welcome

The practice of Paul Vanek, MD, FACS is committed to giving first-class care from the initial inquiry call to our office, through follow-up care after a treatment or a procedure. Dr. Vanek believes superior care to be synonymous with listening, and being accessible and responsive throughout the patient experience. During your consultation Dr. Vanek will spend a significant amount of time educating you about available options to address your specific concerns. This will help you to understand and develop realistic expectations about the procedures you choose.

"The goal of cosmetic surgery is positive change," says Dr. Vanek. Dr. Vanek and his staff will work closely with you to understand your personal result goals and take sound medical steps to achieve physical image enhancements that achieve those goals. Every staff and medical support team member is ready to help each patient along the way.

Once your personal care plan has been established, we pursue those goals employing safe, state-of-the-art techniques in and out of the office. Call today for your individualized consultation with Dr. Vanek to begin the exciting process of reviving your natural beauty, restoring self-confidence and rekindling your spirit!
